A TRIUMVIRATE OF TRUMPETS

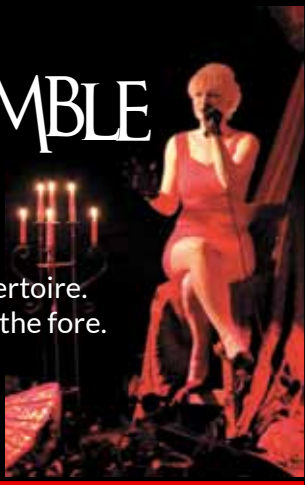

Mark Bradley, Linley Hamilton & Rick Swan

The quintessential jazz instrument might very well be the Trumpet and Northern Ireland is currently blessed with three of the very best in Europe, Mark Bradley, Linley Hamilton and Rick Swan. So we thought if we can get all three in the Country at the one time, why not stage a unique one night only trumpet extravaganza? And here we have it, a Triumvirate of Trumpets.

Working in the great tradition of Louis Armstrong and Miles Davis, these are musicians of the highest calibre, each of whom can take the melodies of The Great American Songbook and create musical magic.
Tonight Mark, Linley and Rick are joined by the mighty Strabane Brass Band conducted by Charles Fyffe together with Peter Doherty on bass, Brian Humpherson piano, Paul Maguire guitar and singer extraordinaire Gerarda McCann.
It's not going to happen again soon - if ever - so don't miss it!
